

Overview of Dongguan Polytechnic

Dongguan Polytechnic, was set up in 2009, is the only public vocational college in Dongguan city. The school based on the local economic and social development since 2009, With the goal of "building the national first-class vocational and technical college with Dongguan characteristics", Condensed the "government, school, enterprise cooperation, learning, production and consumption of one" mode of running a school .Established the "service student growth, supports Dongguan manufacture" the school idea, has realized the rapid development. That is to say, it will be a university of ten thousand people in three years, Four years to become "the third batch of provincial demonstrative higher vocational colleges project construction unit" seven years become the "Provincial first-class vocational colleges project construction unit", enter the province the first tier colleges and universities, In 2017, our university ranked 166 in China and 13 in the province in terms of competitiveness of Chinese colleges and universities.

The university is located in Songshan Lake National High-tech Industrial Development Zone, with a total campus area of 620,000 square meters, a building area of 339,500 square meters, and an experimental and training place of 89,000 square meters. The existing fixed assets are 1.336 billion yuan, of which the total value of teaching equipment is 138 million yuan. The library has more than 830,000 paper books, 58 kinds of Chinese newspapers and 1,384 kinds of Chinese periodicals. It has more than 20 databases in both Chinese and foreign languages.

At present, the school has more than 9,500 full-time students, education of all kinds of adult education and more than 5,100 self-examination students. There are 668 teaching staff, more than 455 full-time teachers and 168 senior professional titles, among which 26 hold senior professional titles and nearly 40 hold doctoral degrees. 3 Nan Yue excellent teacher, 2 provincial technical experts, 2 provincial professional leading talents cultivation object ,4 province outstanding young teacher training object, 2 high-level skilled part-time teacher, 7 good teacher in dongguan city, Teachers of the university have won more than 20 awards in information-based teaching competitions at or above the provincial level and professional teaching competitions, forming a teacher team with reasonable professional title, education background, age and gender structure.

The university attaches great importance to international cooperation and exchanges, Cooperation agreements have been signed with universities in Canada, Australia, Germany, Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan. We will carry out overseas cooperation programs such as cooperative education, mutual recognition of credits, joint training and student exchanges.

The school has made remarkable achievements. In recent years, students have performed excellently in various competitions, winning more than 300 awards, including 41 national awards, ranking top 10 in the province, and the special contribution award of guangdong skills competition.